Daffodil Run

Thursday 30th March 2023

Powis Castle was built in the 13th Century as a medieval fortress. The Herbert family occupied the castle from 1570 and gradually remodelled the castle into a Baroque palace.

The 17th Century Italianate terraces are lined with herbaceous borders and the famous cloud-like yew trees. The terraces overlook the paddock where each March wild daffodils appear and light up the landscape.

Access to Powis Castle is free to National Trust Members. The entry price for non-Members is £15 and this covers the house and gardens. However, access can be made to the café and Courtyard Terrace (which looks onto the lower terraces and paddocks) without charge.

Our route to Powis Castle will take us through some of the lesser know villages along the Welsh Marches.

Lunch has been arranged at The Horseshoes in Berriew (on the A483) - famous for its "Swan in the Electricity Wires" incident! There is no need to pre-order the food but the pub would like to know numbers. PLEASE LET ME KNOW BY TUESDAY 28TH MARCH IF YOU WILL BE JOINING US.
